

(I) Education—The average number of years of education completed by the respondent. The average number of years of education completed by the respondent is used as a proxy for the respondent's cognitive ability. The average number of years of education completed by the respondent is used as a proxy for the respondent's cognitive ability. The average number of years of education completed by the respondent is used as a proxy for the respondent's cognitive ability.