

How many people live in Gateshead? It is a town in Tyne and Wear, England, on the south bank of the River Tyne, opposite Newcastle upon Tyne; Gateshead and Newcastle are joined together by a bridge across the Tyne, forming the Gateshead Millennium Bridge. The town is known for its architecture including the Gateshead Millennium Bridge, the Sage Gateshead, the Gateshead International Centre for Contemporary Music, and the Gateshead International Centre for Contemporary Music. The town is also known for its football club, Gateshead F.C., and its association with the Gateshead International Centre for Contemporary Music.