

the vehicle services sector in August and September lagged behind the rest of the economy.

And more than 100,000 new workers accounted for 70% of the increase in the labor force to a level of 1.1 billion.

It showed that the economy was still growing, but it showed that the economy was still growing in a way that was not as strong as it had been in the past several years.